Nebraska and its Settlement.

The well-informed and intelligent Washington er spandent of the New York Courier and Enguirer, writes 2: follows in regard to the new Territories of Kansus and Nebruska, and the probabifities of their becoming Free, or Slave States ; bitness of their becoming Five, a) Slave States:

But it is obvious that the Southern emigrants will have advantages that will neader the contest entirely mechal. They are now upon the very borders of the disputed territory. They can move in and occupy the most valuable locations before settlers from more distant sections can reach the country. They are fruntiersmen, and ad-pixel to all the exagencies of pioneer lite. They have been h bituated to the use of arms all their lives; and, more than all, they will be included by that sentiment or common attachment to a peculiar institution and a material interest, which will give unanimity and vigor to all their fives of the protection.

I know by experience, that slave into is valuable in any new country, and it is generally nble in any new country, and this generally plopular among settlers whether from the North or South. It misseres the secretic on those many popular among settless whether from the North-bors necessary for clearing up the country, and reducing it to a habitable condition. For these reasons, I have no doubt at all that a large ma-jority of the first settlers in Kaness will be from slaveholding States, and that it will be a slave terinory, and will be admitted as a slave State. It is possible that slavery may dwindle in Kan-man for the first settlement, which will cause in It is possible that slavery may dwindle in Kan-ess after the first excitement, which will cause a rapid inflex of slaves into that texion, shall have passed, but 1 do not consider that probable. Slavery has thrived and is thriving in Missouri, In 1810 the Terratory contained 3041 claves; in 1820 a had 10,222. In 1830 the State contained 25 091 claves; in 1849, 58 240; and the Centus of 1850 showed the number to be 87,422. But it will give a better view of the progress of this class of the population to compare it with that of the whites, as follows:

Whites. Slaves, Inc. of Slaves.

the whites, as follows:

Whites,
1816 17 237 3.011
1eve 55.983 10.222 35 per cent.
1c30 114.755 25.091 250 "

1c50 592.004 87.422 50 "

fully kept up. In fact the institution seems to prefer the depths of the interior, and to seek these decision of the wilderness. Do not these facts fully asstain what I wrote at an earlier's age of the discussion, to wit :- "The argument that sharry is not likely to go to Nobraska, (Kansand Nobraska,) or exactly equivalent to saying that slavery and not exist in Mesouri while it sharely is not like y to go to Nebraska, (K. chass and Nobroska,) of exactly a copinselant to saying that slavery did not exist in Missouri while it was a territory, has not since existed there, and do z not exist there now."

Nebraska, the Northero Territory, may become a tree. Site, while the Sambera cloud settlempto, the lower territory, and the "Northero bive" may here find a testing place. Taking into view the enormous foreign immigration, it is likely that this will be the case. But of eventual territory the Southern mage of counties will be first peopled from Missouri. Its fate, as to the establishment or rejection of slavery, will depend up a the legislation of the President and Cabinet. The fundamental laws of the territories will be firsted is the White House, and probably adopted without opposition. The inflatence of the Federal Givernment is almost irrestable in the States in the territories, it is quite so.

The Madison Convention

We have seen nothing in our exchanges to which we could respond as cordially as the following extract from an editorial in the Madison State Journal; and if the views and feelings there

State Journal; and if the views and feelings therein expressed shall govern the co-vention, west. Il hope for greet good from its meeting.

The Milwaukee Free Democratiakes exceptions to the suggestions of the Journal, that "nenprominently connected with any political party, and actions p rhaps to members of other parties,
should stand back and let new men take the lead in the matter," because it thinks old lenders are worsted to grantical the friends of freedom. Seanted to organize the friends of freedom, &c. -If the Free Democrat. In fact, we think thatsaces, in a very great measure, depends upon whether that agrice is followed or rejected.

Every man who has had anything to do with betry man who has but anything to do with politics knows right woll that it is exceedingly difficult to induce men to vote for or, follow the lead of those whom they have formerly, opposed. The prejudice of men for their party, and against those who have been arrayed against them politically, is much more strong than those would believe who have not had occasion to combat it. Whige, Free Soilers and Democrate have all natified earnestly, zeahou-ly and honostly for heir party. Each has said hard things of their said the said hard things. buttled earmestly, zeahau-ly and honcestly for their party. Each has said hard things of their party. Each has said hard things of their opponents, and those sayings have hard. They are not resulty forgotten, because the great majority of each party, have acted honestly and between the hard things said by their opponents were unjust, and together with this has grown up a strong feeling of rivalry and of multition to see our side win because it is our tide, our par y and our candidates; and if we are to go into another election for Congress with old candidates, these feelings with hill be revived and old party prediterious will control more less our settions.

It is vain to say that these things should not be.

It is vain to say that these things should not be that must love of principles should raise them above all such prejudices. We may admit this and probably every one will admit it; but we are all human, and if we would reform the world, we must take us it is, and not as we may funcy it should be.

we are auxious to see all those who would releem our country from the control of the Siave Origarchy act tegether, and if it is necessary to cure this object, that we give up all party or secure this object, that we give in all party or ganizations and yield our strong preferences for our leaders, we are perfectly willing to do so, and we would even support our warmest political opponent, but we would prefer to be saved this necessity—and we suppose others have the same feelings and are ready to meet them on the equal grounds.—Oshkoch Den.

Nothing like Example

We heard of a coal ghboring cities, who seemed very saxious to prepare he is insight and fellow citizens to meet the anticipated dreadful ravages or cholera. He would allow no food to be estend why his family, but plan safted meat, fish, bread &c.; and whenever any or them wished for sone-antigg a little extra, they had to suy over to an abiliging neighbors, where they never failed of latting a fine slice of excellent pie, cake or pading. Previous to this, however, they could boast of all these delicacies at home. Things went on thus for a week. The mayor, it was noticed by nis wortby better haf, did not have a very good appetite whenever he came to his meals, (for the good reason probably that there are many good eating salouns in the place) and she thought that a good rhubarb pie would do no harm, but rather give her husband a relish for hadinuer. She accordingly placed oneat his side, when he sat down to the noon-day meal. A cloud passed over the braw of the bead of the family.

"Wife," said he "how often must I speak of these things? Inseens as if you were determined as the shared deside of all my Drecan.

"Wife," said he mow often that I speak of these things? I seems as if you were determined to give us the choices, despite of all my precautions. Please take away this detending green shiff."

The muck dame silently removed the offending

The musk dame silently removed the offending delicacy to the kitchen, followed by the greedy eyes of haif a dozen disappointed youngsters the father soon got through his dinner, arose from the table and passed out—leaving the others to fluish their meal or plain bread and butter and confish. The sen, however, not having the fear of the father before his eyes, and withal sighing for the "flesh-pots of Egypt," as soon as he theoret his father will goine out of sight, silvifor the "flesh-pots of Egypt," as soon as he thought his father will gove out of sight, slyly crept into the kitchen to get a slice of the covered pre. But "when he got there, the table was more"—the rhuberb pie was gone! Thinking, pertaps, that Bridget had thrown it into the will-burrel, he went to the door of the woodstied, when lo! what a sight presented itself to the woodering eyes of the boy. Hamlet could not have bren more surprised at the sight of his ather's ghost, than was our hero at the appearance of the veritable mayor, seated upon a saw book, with the half-devoured hubbard pie (detectable green stuff!) in his hand! He was sacriting himself to save his family, and eating the pie, cholera and all!

The sou got a good share of the prize, by giving a promise not to tell; and the old mas slid for his office. He has not been heard to say any tining against "green suff" since.—Tolech Blade.

"We had hardly room yesterday to announce the fact of the confirmation of three of the South American treatics of the last National Administration which occurred on the day before. Thuse several instruments were negotiated on the part of this government by the Hon. Measrs, schenck, of Ohio and Fendleton, of Virginia, at that time American Minister and Charge in those quatters. We need hardly say that they reflect great credit on those gentlemen, for it will be remembered, that at the time the country rang with gratulatory newspaper remarks upon their successful prosecution of the business for which they were especially sent to South America.

The treaty for the navigation of the La Plata and its confluents is one of immense importance, doubtless, to the commercial interest of the United States. It opens a navigation to us—and

Post Office Removai.

In a part of our edition of last week we announced the removal of Myron B. Williams, Esq., from the Post Office to the city, and the appointment of P. V. Brown, Esq., to ful his place.

The news of this change fell so suddenly upon the majority of our citizens that the shock appeared for a time to actually impair the minds of acroy. We really must say, that to us this removal was a transaction of which we were quite noprepared to hear, yet, upon learning that My. Brown, who has been a resident of this place for a number of years, and who is well known as a business man and an oblighing gentleman, was business man and an obliging gentleman, was appointed to fill the place, we again became composed, and resumed our labor as though no-composed, and resumed our rather as though nothing had transpired to disturb the monotony of our office life.

Not so with many others. Some were making the inquiries: What has Mr Williams done, or what has he left undone? What offense has he what has he left undone? What offense has he committed? No one could enswer. The question has since been answered by those who are supposed to know. The office has been properly conducted—every thing has been satisfactory to the department and to the majority of our citizens. But the government at Washington have been informed that it is not certain that Mr. Williams is an out and out Nabraska pre sixtery of the property of th liams is an out and out Nobraska-pro elavery man, and therefore could not be depended upon by the Pierce administration, consequently know-ing their weakness, they take all such measures to strengthen the mestive creases the knowledge among the people of the weakness and positionimity of our general gorernment.

The feeling arong our citizens has certainly been anything but pleasant upon the subject of this removal.—Watertown Chronicle.

The Earthquake at San Salvador.

From one of the local papers of San Salvador, we have interesting details of the terrible earthquake that took piece there on the night of the 16th of April. The following is an extract:

"The night of the 16th of April, 1854, will eve be one of and and butter memory of the people of Salvador. On that unfortunate night our happy and beautiful capital was made a heap of ruins. Movements of the earth were felt on the morning of Hely Thursday, preceded by sounds like the rolling of newy attillers over pavements, and like distant thunder. ### City Matters. POLICE COURT, JUNE 28th.

EFORE CLINTON WALWORTH, RSQ., POLICE JUSTICE.

The warm weather invariably produces an inrease in criminal business. The court was carcely opened this morning, when several applicants were in attendance with complaints; from assault and battery, to charges of assault with the intent to kill, threats to murder, attempts to commit rape, &c., &c. The advantage of experience in office, and of the benefits of that experience to the Treasury of the County, was fully shown .-The applicants, when their stories were investigated by the Police Justice, were found to have been most of them prompted to make their charges from other motives than those which should govern an applicant to a Police Court --They were all dismissed, or referred to the District Attorney, but with a hint peculiar to the Police Justice, that, the other gentleman who takes an interest in the affairs of the county, would or most likely to view the applications in the same light as the magistrate did.

The performance is more varied than any before exhibited in this city, consisting of vocal and inserumental music, dancing, discourses in the pennine negro style, burlesques, and everything in the darkey line that is attractive and funny. The singing is excellent, the songs, do., well chosen, as is shown by the repeated encores at their performances here. Brudder Bones is well worth a quarter to see; the dancing of the Infant Prodigy is second to none in the United States; the lecture on Woman's Rights, unlike many of the burlesques on this subject, contains many truthful hits, and is free from any indelicacy. Some of the sirs and songs, as played and sung, have given unlimited satisfaction-euch as "Katy Darling," "My Boshood's Home," "My Mother dear," &c. They perform to-night, with an entire change of programme-admission 25 cents

Wisconsin Politics.—The Buffalo Commercial Alvertier of Saturday last brings us the following interesting information:

PORTAGE CITY LOTS FOR SALE

THE undersigned, being joint owners of about sever undred of the best lots in Portage, both for business pur poses and for residences, are prepared to sel to actual se tlers on the most favorable terms. These lots are it south-east quarter of Section six, Town 12, Range 9, and comprise the whole of that tract except about forty lots which have been sold. The land is high and dry, and is about twenty rods from the Wisconsin River, which runs parallel with the south line of the tract. The so called Veeder Tract" lies next to it. The depot of the La Cross Bail Road will probably be located on our tract, and we ex pect that the principal part of the business of the city will be done upon it at no distant day. It is as near the present centre of business as the First Ward of Milwansee is to the United States Hotel, and it is a higher and sandsomer piece of land, and better adapted for city per oses than the Brst ward of Milwauken.

The title is CLEAR AND UNQUESTIONABLE. 1: rame directly from the United States to Mr. Dunn, one of the undersigned, and was never complicated by any con-nexion with the State Authorities, the Improvement Fund, or any thing of the kind.

We offer these lots, to those who will improve them, at very low rates (about $100, spiece on an average), for the purpose of building up the town, and we bring them to the m tice of the public in this way, in order to correct an ropression that seems thave got abroad, that the Veeder controversy has tied up all the available property in Portage

The Veeder trouble affects only the South-west quarter of Section 5, which is a smaller tract of land, and hes a little further from the river than ours. Let any body look on the map and he will see at once that the Veeder tract is he a small part of the city, and not at all essential to it. Blo a small part of the eng, and not at all easential to it. Blot out of existence curiedy and it would not provent or ma terially delay the full and rapid developement of all the great natural advantages of this important point. Let set tlers come in freely. Now is the best time, just before ti Rail Read gets here. They shall have as handsome lots with cleaver titles, and at cheaper rates, than can be found nany other town of this size in the state. ## Nebraska and its Settlement.

The well-Informed and intelligent Washington e t spendent of the New York Courier and Enguirer, writes as tottows in regard to the new Territories of Kansas and Nebraska, and the probabilities of their becoming Pree, or Stave States : bitines of their becoming Pree, or Slave States:

But it is obvious that the Sou here emigrants will nave selvantages that will render the contest entirely integral. They are now upon the very binders of the disputal territory. They can move in and occupy the most virtuable locations before settlers from more dismut sections can reach the country. They are frontiersmen, and adopted to all the exigencies of pioneer like. They have been be bittated to the use of arms all their likes; and, more than all, they will be unified by that sentiment or common attachment of a preciliar institution and a material interest, inition by the security of a material interest, which will give unanimity and vigor to all their efforts for its protection.

I know by experience, that slave laborate which is to respective.

able in any new country, and it is generally popular among settlers whether from the North or South. It mingates the severity of those laor South. It imagettes the severy solutions to execute for clearing up the country, and reclacing it to a babitable condition. For these reasons, I have no doubt at all that a large majority of the first settlers in Kaneass will be from slevelholding states, and that it will be a slave territory, and will be admitted as a slave State. It is possible that slavery may dwindle in Kannander the first evitenment, which will cause a It is possible that streety may describe the first excitement, which will cause a rape influx of slaves into that region, shall have possess; but I do not consider that probable. Slavery has thrived and is thriving in Missoure. In [515] the Territory contained 3 011 slaves; in 1820 in had 10 222. In [830 the State contained 10 11 the 1240 58 9.10, and the Consus 1720 it had 10 222. In teach the state conduction of 55 091 class; in 1840, 58 240; and the Centus of 1250 showed the number to be 87 422. But it will give a better view of the progress of the class of the projection to compare it with that of the whites, as follows:

Whites, Sinves, Inc. of Slaves, 1910, 17 227 3.011 [1620, 55.958 10 222 35 par cent. 1620 114.755 25.091 250 [233 6] 1940, 323.888 58.240 233 6 1650 59.2001 87.422 50 [25.00]

In sevent on counties next the line of Kansas, or wothin thirty onless of it, the free population i-11,000, and there are 15,554 slaves, showing a population between the two races almost identically the same as in the State at large. Now this line of country a stretches along the border of Knows and Nebraska for four hundred miles, and seems to be the least adopted for since labor of say in Mesouri, yet the proportion of slaves is fully kept up. In fact the institution seems to prefer the depths of the interior, and to seek the closion of the ordernose. Do not these factfully so and what I wrote at an earlier slage of the discussion, to wit in Toe argument that slavest is not likely to go to Nebraska. (Klossand Nebraska, its very depth in the saying that slavery did not exist in Mesouri while it was a territory, has not since existed there, and do a not exist there now.)

Nebraska, the Northern Territory, may become a free Slate, while the Southern could settle. Kansas and Nebraska for four hundred miles, at Nebraska, the Northern Territory, may become a free S atc, whole the Southern cound settle upon the lower territory, and the "Northern hive" may here find a resting place. Taking into view the enormous foreign turning ration, it is likely that this will be the case. But of even that territory the Southern range of counties will be first propled from Missouri. Its fate, as to the establishment or jection of sievery, will depend upon the legislation of the President and Cabinet. The fundamental laws 4 the territories will be faced it it the White House, and probably adopted frace i at the White House, and probably adopted without opposition. The influence of the Federal Government is almost irrestable in the States in the territorie-, it is quite so.

REAL ESTATE IN GRANT COUNTY .- The Platteville American reports real estate, in that vicinity, as stendily on the rise; the demand being partly speculative, and partly for permanent ocipation and investment. The American adds Emigration to this vicinity, this season, is of a different kind from that of any other and the tide seems strong. The eastern states have been pouring in a strady stream of men and capital, pouring in a steady stream of men and capital, since early in the spring, and they still continue to come, and with until our prairies and wood laints shall teem with the industry of thousands who never distributed of a soil more productive than that of New York, Pennsylvania, or Vermont. This is the particular time to visit Wisconsin—western Wisconsin. Nature is clothed in her brighest robes—the fields of waving graingive carnest of abundance, and which ever way the eye may be directed, there is nothing to mar the beauty of the scene.

The Potosi Republican announces that DAVID TAYLOR, of La Crosse, is in the field as an Independent Candidate for Congress in the Secnd District. He is a "democrat," in favor of the Homestead Bill and a Northern route for the Pacific Rail Road, and opposed to the Caucus and Convention yestem. It does not yet appear how he stands on the Nebraska question.

The Madison Convention

We have seen nothing in our exchanges to which we could respond as cordially as the following extract from an editorial in the Madison State Journal; and if the views and feelings there

The Milwaukee Free Democratiskies exceptions to the suggestions of the Journal, that "man

Now, we are constrained to differ with our filerat

whether that advice is followed or rejected.
Every man who has had anything to do with political knows right well that it is exceedingly difficult to induce men to vote for or follow the lead of those whom they have formetly opposed.
The prejudice of men for their party, and against those who have been arrayed against them politically, is much more strong than those would believe who have not bad occasion to combat it.
Whice, Free Soilers and Democrate have all anted to organize the friends of freedom, &c.

lieve who have not bad occasion to combat it.

Whigs, Fr.e Soliers and Democrate have all battled earnestly, Zealously and honestly for their party. Each has said hard things of their opponents, and these sayings have hart. They are not readily forgotten, because the great majority of each party, have acted honestly and between the bard things said by their opponents were unjust, and together with this has grown up a strong feeling of rivalry and of ambition to see our side win because it isour ride, our par y and our candidates; and twe are to go into another election for Congress with old candidates, these feelings will all bureau in the act to go into another classing will all bureau in the act of principles should rise them above all such prejudices. We may admit this and probably every one will admit it; but we are all human, and if we would reform the world, we must take as it is, and not as we may foncy it should be.

We are anxious to see all these who would redeem our country from the capital of the Slave Oligarchy act together, and if it is necessary to secure this object, that we give up all party or secure this object, that we give up all party or-ganizations and yield our strong preferences for our leaders, we are periestly willing to dose, and we would even support our warmest political opposent, but we would prefer to be saved this necessity—and we suppose others have the same feelings and are ready to meet them on the equal grounds,—Oshbosh Dem.

New Hampshire White state control of the Month of the Concount. N. H., June 20, 1854.

The White State Convention held here to-day, was the largest, most harmonious, and most determined assembly of its kind which has been held here by the White party at any time since 1840. How has Peature, recently one of the Judges of the Superier Court, was Chairman of the Convention, and upon the platform and the floor of the house were many of the ablest men with State. There was the utmost harmony f the State. There was the utmost harmony of the State. There was the utmost harmony into state. There was the utmost harmony into a candidate for Governor numbered 324, of which thon James Bell, who was supported in 1853 and 1854, received 316, and there were 18 scattering. Brief but admirable addresses were made by Judge Praist, on taking the chair, by Hon. John Praist, of Causaii, one Learman, Esq., of Course, Daniel Clark, Esq. of Manchester, and James W. Emray, Esq., of Portsmouth. The resolves have the ring of that period in the history of the country when honesty was at no discount in Washington, and when compromises were deemed stored by all the contracting parties. There was nothing of merely parties character in the pro-cred by all the contracting parties. There was nothing of merely parties character in the proceedings; the universal desire being to join with any and all true men, whatever their political afficities, who desire to regain what the North has been perfidiously deprived of by the joint action of the slave power and Northern traitors. It was a capital Convention, and will essentially aid in the political revolution which, next March, will rescue our State from the false Democracy, and place her in the graul army of Commonwealths which know their rights and will dare maintain them.

DASTARDLY ATTEMPT.—Some miserable wretch, DASTABOLY ATTEMPT.—Some miserable wretch, neither fit to live or die, set live to the City Hospital last Sunday night; and but for the presence of mind of Mr. Greenman, the keeper, it would have been destroyed. A box filled with tar and shavings was ignited and placed under one side of the building, and when Mr. Greenman awoke, the flames were rising several feet. Fortunately two tanks of water were in the house, which Mr. G. used with good effect.—Chicago Dem. Press.

Post Office Removal.

In a part of our edition of last week we anounced the removal of Myron B. Williams, Esq., rom the Post Office in this city, and the appointment of P. V. Brown, Esq., to fall his place.

The news of this change fell so suddenly upon the majority of our citizens that the shock apared for a time to actually impair the minds of miny. We really must say, that to us this re-movel was a transaction of which we were quite reprepared to hear, yet, upon learning that Mr. Brown, who has been a resident of this place for mumber of years, and who is well known as a business man and an obliging gentleman, was appointed to fill the place, we again became composed, and resumed our labor as though no-thing land transpired to disturb the monotopy of

No one could answer. The question has since been answered by those who are supposed to know. The office has been properly conducted—every thing has been satisfactory to the department and to the majority of our citizens. But the government at Washington have been informed that it is not certain that Mr. Williams is an out and our Normaka-pro slavery

How short sighted our ruler at the White House and those under him, must be! Every removal and new appointment throughout the country upon political grounds, in our opinion, but increases the knowledge among the people of the wenkness and positionimity of our general government.

The night of Saturday was trançuil, as was also the whole of Sanday. The heat, it is true, was considerable, but the atmosphere was calm and setenc. For the first turce hours of the evening nothing unusual occurred; but at half past nine a severe shock of an earliquake, occurring without the usual preliminary noises, alarmed the whole city. Many families left their nouses united ancampments in the public squares, while others prepared to pass the night in their respective court-yards.

"Finally, at ten minutes to cleven, without premodition of any kind, the earth began to neave and tremble with such fearful force that in ten seconds the entire city was prostrated. The crashing of houses and churches stunned the ears of the terrified inhabitants, while a cloud of dust of the territed inhabitants, wante a cloud in this from the lidling ruius enveloped them in a pall of impenetrable darkness. Wisconsin Politics .- The Buffalo Commercial Advertiser of Saturday last brings us the following interesting information:

We learn from Wiscopin that the friends of James Duane Doty, late Govenor of that State, are making preparations to choose members of the Legislature of sense, it telligence and discrimination enough to elect him to the Senate of the United States. Mr. Walken's term expires with United States. At. WALKES seem expires with the present Congress. His return is bardly conceivable, under any circumstances. With proper exertions we should suppose the success of Mr. Dorr might be econeq; and cortainly if it is de simble for Wisconsin to have an influential and canable representative in the Senate, the effort capable representative in the Senate, the enert ought to be made. He has more fact, shrewdness and ingenuity than the present entire delegation from the State in both Hauses, and could accomplish more than the whole concern acting in concert.

City Matters. POLICE COURT, JUNE 28th.

BEFORE CLINTON WALWORTH, BSQ., POLICE JUSTICE

The warm weather invariably produces an increase in criminal business. The court was scarcely opened this morning, when several applicants were in attendance with complaints; from assault and battery, to charges of assault with the intent to kill, threats to murder, attempts to commit rape, &c., &c. The advantage of experience n office, and of the benefits of that experience to the Treasury of the County, was fully shown .-The applicants, when their stories were investigated by the Police Justice, were found to have been most of them prompted to make their charges from other motives than those which should govern an applicant to a Police Court.-They were all dismissed, or referred to the District Attorney, but with a hint peculiar to the Police Justice, that, the other gentleman who takes an interest in the affairs of the county, would be most likely to view the applications in the same light as the magistrate did.

Campbell Minstrels at Young's Hall. Notwithstanding the heat of the weather, these Minstrels have had good houses at Young's Hall, The performance is more varied than any before exhibited in this city, consisting of vocal and inservmental music, dancing, discourses in the genuine negro style, burlesques, and everything in the darkey line that is attractive and funny. The singing is excellent, the songs, &c., well chosen, as is shown by the repeated encores at their performances here. Brudder Bones is well worth a quarter to see; the dancing of the Infant Prodigy is second to none in the United States; the lecture on Woman's Rights, unlike many of the burlesques on this subject, contains many truthful hits, and is free from any indelicacy. Some of the airs and songs, as played and sung, have given unlimited satisfaction -such as "Katy Darling," "My Boyhood's Home," "My Mother deer," dc. They perform to-night, with an entire change of programme-admission 25 cents. PAYING EAST WATER ST .- Paying is going or

A Doc Stoer.—On Monday evening, as a dog was walking leisurely down State street, "alone in his glory" and seemingly abstracted, one or a gang of paper-venders standing in front of the Traveller office, threw his cap at him. It struck Cæsar's tail. He thereupon turned round, looked at the cap a moment and then at the boys. After reviewing the latter with military-like circumspecting, he approached the lad who was bareheaded, placed his paw upon one of his shoulders, and barked three times into his face, as much as to say, "Where did you learn your manners, you son of E-in?" The urchin was frightened half out of trousers, and screemed and trembled, streamed again—and thus terrified, Cæsar left him.—Boston Courier.

SHIPMENTS OF LEAD AND WHEAT.—About themty five hundred bushels of wheat rud five bundred

These lots are in the outh-east quarter of Section six, Town 12, Range 9, and comprise the whole of that tract except about forty lots which have been sold. The land is high and dry, and is shout twenty rods from the Wisconsin River, which runs parallel with the south line of the tract. The so called "Veeder Tract" lies next to it. The depot of the La Crosse Rait Road will probably be located on our tract, and we ex pect that the principal part of the business of the city will be done upon it at no distant day. It is as near the present centre of business as the First Ward of Milwanke is to the United States Hotel, and it is a higher and bandsomer piece of land, and better adapted for city pur poses than the first ward of Milwankee.
